

Albert Dyckes

1948

Albert Dyckes was a 4-year starter in football (MVP as a senior) at FHS and received an Athletic Scholarship for football at Bowling Green State University, where he was also elected student body president.

After graduation he was Deputy Director of Ohio Department of Health, Director of the American Public Health Association, Associate Coordinator of the Ohio Regional Medical Program at The Ohio State University, Deputy Director of the Mid-Ohio Health Planning Federation and Senior Vice President of the Ohio Hospital Association.

Albert was selected as one of Bowling Green State University's 100 most prominent Alumni in 2010. Since 1996, two Albert E. Dyckes Healthcare Scholarships are awarded each year at Bowling Green State University. For the Albert E. Dyckes Healthcare Worker of the Year, The Ohio Hospital Association recognizes a healthcare worker of the year from nominations by Ohio's hospitals.

