

Nancy J. Bradley Lewis

1961

Nancy earned a B.S. in education from Lake Erie College; M.A. in reading specialization from Case Western Reserve University; and a Juris Doctorate from Cleveland Marshall College of Law. She worked as a teacher and administrator in the Mentor City, Fairport Harbor and Willoughby-Eastlake Schools. In retirement she taught at the University of South Florida Sarasota - Manatee Regional campus. She was recognized as a Jennings Scholar; Jennings Administrative Leadership Program member; National School Public Relations Association award winner; Ohio Hall of Fame winner; Ohio Department of Education intervention assistance team trainer; finalists in the Ohio Principal of the Year competition and finalists in The National School Recognition of Excellence competition. In Willoughby Eastlake schools she started a Latchkey program and a preschool program. She worked on the Sarasota Garden Club Scholarship committee raising more than $45,000 in funds for students.