

Linda Shetina Logan

1973

Linda was the first executive director of the Greater Columbus Sports Commission. She organized, staged and directed hundreds of meetings, concerts, sporting events and conventions throughout the United States. Some major events included: NCAA Men's Final Four, Presidential Debates and the United Nation's Summit on Trade. She graduated from Ohio University and served on the board of the Sports Administration and Facility Management Program. Linda was the national chair of the National Association of Sports Commissions (NASC). Linda earned additional certification from the International Association of Assembly Managers (IAAM) School for Public Facility Managers and the NASC's Certified Sports Event Executive (CSEE). A devoted Cleveland Indians fan, Linda was the sports editor of the Skipper Sketches and president of the FHS band.

