

Tom Orosz

1977

Tom Orosz graduated from Fairport Harbor in 1977. Not too many area high school players own a Super Bowl ring, but Orosz does, as a punter for the San Francisco 49ers in 1983.

Tom was a four-year starter for the Skippers on offense and defense, and arguably the best punter in area history. He was also a three-time first-team News-Herald selection who played collegiate football at Ohio State. He was a punter for the Miami Dolphins from 1981-82 and San Francisco 49ers from 1983-84.
